The name of the Society is KELOWNA ATHEISTS, SKEPTICS AND HUMANISTS ASSOCIATION

The purposes of the Society are:

- a) To foster a local secular community guided by reason, science, freedom of inquiry, and humanist values.
- b) To provide a forum for open discussion of various topics of interest to members.
- c) To be a positive presence in the community through both group and individual outreach.
- d) To support individuals and families who are leaving their religions or who need help in communicating to their families and friends that they no longer have, or never did have, religious faith or supernatural beliefs.
- e) To promote, educate, and advocate for scientific and critical thinking, and a secular humanist world view.
- f) To provide an atmosphere which welcomes visitors of various persuasions, and with differing beliefs, to attend our community and educational gatherings.

This society is a member-funded society. It is funded primarily by its members to carry on activities for the benefit of its members. On its liquidation or dissolution, this society may distribute its money and other property to its members.
