

Kelowna Religions Data from StatsCan Data

Religion refers to the person's self-identification as having a connection or affiliation with any religious denomination, group, body, sect, cult or other religiously defined community or system of belief. Religion is not limited to formal membership in a religious organization or group. Persons without a religious connection or affiliation can self-identify as atheist, agnostic or humanist, or can provide another applicable response. (StatsCan)

The data was compiled by Kelowna Atheists, Skeptics and Humanists Association - askuskelowna.ca

1 Data was obtained by StatsCan. You can access the links on row (a)

2 The religious categories changed over time and some were combined in order to put them in the rows. 2021 has the most recent recognized religious category. The older data was combined to fit into the 2021 categories.

3 The population number is different from the total religion counts. It is unknown why the data is different.
